

Chris Searcy selected as 2015 member of Trial Lawyer Hall of Fame

Nominated on the basis of his “indelible mark on the American legal tradition through a lifetime of service to the American public, the Constitution, and the American trial bar.”

In April 2015, The National Trial Lawyers announced at its conference in Las Vegas that Chris Searcy was selected as a 2015 inductee into The Trial Lawyer Hall of Fame. The honor recognized his 41 years of litigation, especially on behalf of victims and their families in catastrophic injury and wrongful death cases. “I am both honored and humbled by this distinction,” said Mr. Searcy. “Serving the law and seeking justice are very personal for me. This award belongs to the thousands of families who have shared their tragedies with me so I could help them recover and move on with their lives.” The Trial Lawyer Hall of Fame is a non-profit organization located at the Beasley School of Law at Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Each year, a handful of exemplary trial attorneys are nominated on the basis of their “indelible mark on the American legal tradition through a lifetime of service to the American public, the Constitution, and the American trial bar.” The National Trial Lawyers association promotes excellence in the legal profession through education, networking, and legal publications dealing with current issues. ♦
