PROFESSIONAL ACHIEVEMENTS

Christian D. Searcy was the youngest lawyer in the United States to achieve a verdict of one million dollars for a single personal injury, which was in the case of Bernard v. Florida East Coast Railway in March 1978 at age 29.

In October of 2005, Christian D. Searcy was named the recipient of the Perry Nichols Award by the Florida Justice Association. This award is the highest honor the Florida Justice Association bestows in recognition of a lifetime of outstanding and distinguished service to the cause of justice.

In February of 2006, Mr. Searcy was one of only two lawyers in the country to receive the "War Horse Award" from the Southern Trial Lawyers Association, honoring his outstanding skill as a trial advocate and his extraordinary contributions to the cause of justice.

In October of 2007, Mr. Searcy was selected to be inducted into the Stetson University College of Law's Hall of Fame from thousands of eligible alumni for having a profound and positive influence on the life of the College and the legal world.

In October of 2008, Mr. Searcy was awarded the Ironman Award for his decade long support of the Coastal Conservation Association which protects our marine fisheries.

In November 2008, Mr. Searcy was named 2009 West Palm Beach Best Lawyers Personal Injury Litigator of the Year.

In May 2010, Mr. Searcy was selected as one of the 2010 Lawdragon 500 Leading Lawyers in America.

In 2007, Mr. Searcy was highest vote getter of all attorneys in Florida in Super Lawyers Civil Litigation.
